Fatal Traffic Collision Investigation

Phoenix, Arizona (March 16, 2022): An adult female suffers fatal injuries while crossing mid-block in North Phoenix

Phoenix Police responded to a traffic collision at 17th Avenue and Bell Road last night around 8:45 p.m. When the officers arrived, they found an adult female on the roadway with obvious signs of trauma. Officers remained with the female until fire personnel arrived. A red SUV, driven by an adult male, had struck the female and remained on scene. The male did not suffer any injuries.

The female pedestrian was transported to a nearby hospital where she was later pronounced deceased by medical personnel.

The driver of the SUV showed no signs of impairment. Preliminary information suggests the female was crossing Bell Road mid-block, outside of a crosswalk, and was struck by the SUV. Currently, the traffic collision remains under investigation.
