Fatal Traffic Collision Investigation

An adult male is dead after a motorcycle collision in a south Phoenix neighborhood

Phoenix Police responded to a traffic collision near 15th Street and Chambers Street. When the officers arrived, they learned a motorcycle, occupied by two adult males, was southbound on 15th Street when it collided with a curb and crashed into a tree.

The fire department responded and transported both males to a local hospital. The driver, later identified as Jose Moraga-Garcia, was pronounced deceased by the medical staff. The passenger sustained non-life-threatening injuries.

Preliminary information suggests alcohol may be a factor. The collision remains under investigation.
