A Man is Dead After a Confrontation with a Neighbor

(May 22, 2022) Two neighbors get into a dispute over a noise complaint. The confrontation turns deadly after both men come out of their homes with a firearm which leads to one of them getting shot.

Police were called to the area of Ocotillo Road and Black Canyon Highway about a shooting late Sunday morning at around 11:30 a.m. When they got there, they found a man shot inside an apartment. The man, later identified as 33-year-old Nicasio Yzagere, was transported to a local hospital where he died from his injuries.

The officers located and detained the man who was identified by witnesses as the shooter. He was taken into custody with no incident and cooperated with the investigation.

Detectives responded to investigate the incident by speaking to witnesses, processing the crime scene, developing leads and interviewing the shooter.

Currently, no arrests have been made, however, the investigation remains active.
