Homicide Investigation

On June 26, 2021, at about 7:15 p.m., Phoenix Police responded to a residence near New River Road and Circle Mountain Road reference an injured person call.

Officers arrived and entered the residence and located a man and a woman, both adults with gunshot injuries. Phoenix Fire personnel arrived and pronounced the man and woman deceased on scene. During the investigation, detectives learned that the man and woman were married and that there were marital problems.

Evidence suggests that the husband shot his wife and then took his own life. This is an ongoing investigation and next of kin notifications are underway.
