A Woman is Shot and Killed in South Phoenix

Detectives are investigating a shooting at a home that left a 34-year-old woman dead.

Phoenix Police officers were dispatched to a shooting call at a home near 16th Street and Broadway Road. When they arrived they found a woman, later identified as 34-year-old Edna Aragon-Baca, on the ground with multiple gunshot wounds. The officers provided aid until the fire department arrived and transported Edna to the hospital. She later died from her injuries.

Homicide detectives responded to investigate the shooting. After speaking to witnesses and examining the crime scene, they learned there was a gathering at the residence when the shooting occurred. Edna was the only person struck by gunfire and the suspect left the area before police arrived.

Detectives have been working overnight to identify and locate the suspect. There is no suspect information to share currently. If anyone has any information, they are encouraged to call Phoenix Police or Silent Witness at 480-WITNESS or 480-TESTIGO (Spanish).
