Homicide

Police officers are investigating a homicide that occurred at a residence near 3700 West Puget Avenue. An adult male was transported to the hospital by the Phoenix Fire Department with what were initially believed to be non-life-threatening injuries, but at the hospital the male succumbed to his injuries .

Officers learned someone in the home shot the male, who also lived in the home, after an altercation. Another individual was also in the home when this occurred. All parties remained on scene and spoke with investigators. There are not believed to be any outstanding suspects. This is an ongoing investigation. Once it is complete, it will be submitted to the Maricopa County Attorney's Office for any possible charging decisions.
