Man Arrested After Scaling Downtown High-rise

(February 7, 2023): A man is facing criminal trespassing charges after free climbing a downtown building this morning.

Phoenix police officers and Phoenix firefighters responded to a call of a man climbing a downtown building near Central Avenue and Monroe Street just before 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday. When officers arrived, they found a man climbing an exterior ventilation access area along the southside of the building.

The man, later identified as 23-year-old Maison Des Champs, was taken into custody by Phoenix police officers on the roof of the building. Des Champs was checked by fire personnel and suffered no injuries.

Des Champs will be booked into the Maricopa County Jail for trespassing and criminal nuisance charges.
