Pedestrian Traffic Fatality in North Phoenix

(February 9, 2023): Phoenix Police is investigating a traffic collision that resulted in the death of a man while crossing mid-block

Phoenix Police officers responded to a call of a serious vehicle collision around 12:30 p.m. at 2100 West Dunlap Avenue. When officers arrived, they found a man lying on the roadway. The fire department arrived on scene and later pronounced the man, later identified as 38-year-old Ruben Joya Corrales, deceased on scene.

The vehicle and driver involved in the collision remained on scene. The driver of the vehicle has no signs of impairment. Detectives responded and learned Corrales was crossing Dunlap Avenue as an eastbound vehicle approached and was struck.

The investigation remains active as detectives continue to process the evidence. No arrests have been made.
