Shooting Leaves a Teenager Dead

(February 7, 2023) On February 6, 2023, just before 8:30 p.m., Phoenix police officers responded to a shooting near 3500 West Camelback Road. When officers arrived, they found a male teenager with a gunshot wound. The teenaged male did not survive his injuries and was pronounced deceased on scene. An adult male and teenaged female were detained on scene by officers.

Homicide detectives responded to investigate the shooting. Preliminary information indicates that the three were involved in a confrontation resulting in the teenaged male being shot. The adult male that was detained was released pending further investigation. The teenaged female was detained at Maricopa County Juvenile Detention Center.

This investigation is ongoing.
