Pedestrian Fatality near Black Canyon Corridor

(May 29, 2023): Phoenix police are investigating traffic collision that left a woman dead after crossing mid-block on 27th Avenue.

Phoenix police officers responded to a call of a serious vehicle collision just after 10:30 p.m. at 27th and Luke Avenues. When officers arrived, they found a woman lying on the roadway and a vehicle stopped nearby. The fire department arrived and provided medical aid to the woman who was later pronounced deceased on scene.

The driver of the vehicle was evaluated and did not show any signs of impairment. Detectives responded to investigate the collision and learned the woman had crossed mid-block on 27th Avenue and was struck by the vehicle which was heading northbound.

The investigation remains active and next of kin notification is pending.
