The Phoenix Police Department has made the arrest in this case, of 26-year-old Joshua Bagley. After several days and tireless efforts that were a collaborative partnership between several units in the police department and the community, the suspect in this case, Bagley, was taken into custody this afternoon in the area of 27th Avenue and Indian School Road. Police were called to the area about a suspicious person that matched Bagley's description. Mr. Bagley is currently in police custody as the booking and interview process is completed. More information will be provided as it becomes available. The Phoenix Police Department wishes to thank the community for their support and assistance in apprehending the suspect in this case

Phoenix Police are investigating a homicide that has left a 41-year-old woman dead from strangulation.

Police are asking the public's help in locating a suspect her in death.

On May 6th, around 8 a.m., Phoenix police responded to the area of 7600 South 27th Avenue about a person on a bus not breathing. When officers arrived at the scene, they located a 41-year-old woman, later identified as Diane Craig, with signs of strangulation. Ms. Craig was taken to a local hospital where she died from her injuries. Throughout the course of the investigation, detectives were able gather enough evidence to name Joshua Bagley a suspect in her death. Bagley has not been located.

The Phoenix Police Department is appealing to the community for help in locating Joshua Bagley. Anyone with information about this incident, or Bagley's whereabouts, is asked to contact the Phoenix Police Department, or Silent Witness at 480-WITNESS (480-TESTIGO for Spanish speakers) if they wish to remain anonymous.
