Detectives Arrest Teen for Shooting

(December 24, 2022) Phoenix police detectives arrested and referred a teenaged male to JCC for shooting an adult man in the area of 27th Avenue and Indian School Road.

On Friday, December 23, 2022, at about 5:21 p.m. Phoenix officers were told by a group of people that a man was shot near a bus stop. Officers drove to the northwest corner bus stop of 27th Avenue and Indian School Road where they saw the victim suffering from a gunshot wound. Phoenix Fire Department responded and took the victim to a local hospital with critical injuries.

Patrol officers checking the area contacted two individuals nearby that matched the description given by witness. During interviews with detectives, it was learned that the teenaged male detained shot the victim before leaving the area. The adult female detained with the teenaged male was later interviewed and released as a witness.

Events that led up to the shooting are still under investigation by detectives. The teenage suspect was later taken and referred to JCC for several felony charges.
