Afternoon Collision in North Phoenix Leaves Man Dead

(April 21, 2023) A collision involving a motorcycle results in a man's death near 26th Avenue and Deer Valley Road.

On April 20, 2023 just after 1:02 p.m., Phoenix police officers responded to the area of 2600 West Deer Valley Road for a collision involving a motorcycle and another vehicle. When officers arrived, they located an adult male, determined to be the motorcycle rider, with serious injuries. The man did not survive his injuries and was pronounced deceased on scene. The other vehicle involved in the collision remained on scene.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Preliminary information suggest that the vehicle involved in the collision was traveling eastbound on Deer Valley Road and was attempting to make a northbound turn onto 26th Avenue. The motorcycle was traveling westbound on Deer Valley Road when it collided with the vehicle. Alcohol is not believed to be a factor in the collision. Specifics about the collision remain part of the ongoing investigation.
