Large Collision Leaves One Dead, One Outstanding

(March 18, 2023) A collision involving five vehicles, including a Phoenix Police patrol vehicle, claims the life of one and sends multiple people to the hospital.

On March 17, 2023, just after 10:00 p.m., officers responded to the area of 34th Street and McDowell Road regarding a multiple vehicle collision that included a marked Phoenix Police patrol vehicle and another vehicle that was on fire. When officers arrived, they located a total of five involved vehicles and several occupants that had sustained injuries. A total of five people were transported to local hospitals with serious but non-life-threatening injuries. Included in this group were two Phoenix Police Officers. One officer has been released from the hospital, the other is still being treated and is in stable condition regarding her injuries.

One occupant of the other vehicles involved was pronounced deceased on scene. The male driver of what appears to be the at fault vehicle ran from the scene after the collision. He remains outstanding.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Specifics about what led up to the collision are part of the ongoing investigation. Anyone with information regarding the outstanding man can contact the Phoenix Police Department, or Silent Witness (480-WITNESS or 480-TESTIGO for Spanish).
