Fatal Motorcycle Collision

(February 26, 2023) Phoenix police detectives are investigating a single motorcycle collision in north Phoenix that occurred on Saturday evening resulting in one fatality.

At about 6:28 p.m. on February 25, 2023, Phoenix police officers responded to a single motorcycle collision near 2300 West Beardsley Road. When officers got to the scene, they found a motorcyclist suffering from critical injuries. The Phoenix Fire Department responded to the area and took the man to a local hospital where he later died from his injuries.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation and learned that the collision occurred when the motorcycle operator was driving east on Beardsley Road and hit a curb causing him to be ejected from the motorcycle. The motorcyclist was wearing a helmet during this incident

This investigation is continuing.
