Pedestrian Killed in Fatal Hit and Run Collision

(August 15, 2023) A woman is dead after being hit by an SUV while she was crossing the street outside of any marked crosswalks on Monday night.

On August 14, 2023, at about 9:30 p.m. officers responded to a hit and run collision near Indian School Road and 75th Avenue. When officers got to the scene, they found an adult woman suffering from critical injuries. Phoenix Fire responded and took her to a hospital where she did not survive her injuries.

Detectives responded to the scene and learned that the pedestrian was crossing 75th Avenue outside the crosswalk when she was hit by an SUV driving north on 75th Avenue from Indian School Road. The driver of the SUV left the area and was followed to a house near 59th Avenue and Camelback Road where he was witness going into the house. Officers secured the house and were able to contact a teenaged male who was identified as the driver of the SUV. The Driver was evaluated for intoxication which no sings were noted. Detectives have recommended the juvenile for charges of leaving the scene of a fatal collision.

This incident continues to be part of an ongoing investigation.
