Fatal Pedestrian and Vehicle Collision

(November 4, 2022) Phoenix police detectives responded to 300 West Southern Avenue to investigate a pedestrian and vehicle collision that left one person dead.

Last night at about 9:30 p.m. on November 3, 2022, Phoenix police responded to a call of a collision involving a semi-truck trailer and pedestrian near 300 West Southern Avenue. Officers found an adult male pedestrian with injuries on the ground. He was transported to the hospital and died from his injuries. The semi-truck driver was identified as an adult male who remained on scene.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Preliminary information indicates the pedestrian was walking in the roadway on Southern Avenue when he was struck by a semi-truck trailer who was going west on Southern Avenue. Impairment of the pedestrian is unknown at this time and will be determined through a postmortem blood analysis. There were no signs of impairment on the semi-truck driver.

Further details about the crash are still under investigation.
