Communities Help Needed to Solve Murder

(November 12, 2023) Detectives are encouraging the community to call in with tips to help solve an early morning homicide in west Phoenix.

In the early morning hours of November 12, 2023, officers responded to a large party call at a house near Camelback Road and 55th Avenue. Officers got to the house and found a chaotic scene with hundreds of people running away from the house. Officers found 23-year-old Carlos Vences Jr. suffering from gunshot wounds. Vences was taken to the hospital by The Phoenix Fire Department where he received emergency lifesaving treatment. Not able to survive his injuries, Vences passed away.

Detectives continue to investigate as they interview dozens of witness'. Investigators believe other witness that were at the party have knowledge of what led up to this deadly shooting and may know the person(s) responsible.

Anyone with information regarding the identification of the suspect that shot and kill Vences are strongly encouraged to call Silent Witness at 480-Witness or 480-Testigo, your tip will stay anonymous.
