Death Investigation

On October 5, 2021, at about 1:52 a.m., the Phoenix Police Department responded to the area of Central Avenue and Ruth Avenue regarding a call of a possible deceased person. When officers arrived, they located a victim who was pronounced deceased on scene.

Information was obtained that a person with information may be inside of a residence, so the Special Assignments Unit responded, but no one was inside of the home.

This is an ongoing investigation in the early stages, and I will provide additional information as it becomes available. The manner and cause of death will be determined by the Office of the Medical Examiner.
