Early Morning Collision Leaves Pedestrian Dead

(September 14, 2023) Phoenix Police detectives are investigating a collision that took the life of a pedestrian.

On September 14, 2023, at about 2:50 a.m., officers responded to 24th Avenue and Peoria Avenue regarding a collision involving a pedestrian. When officers arrived, they located the adult male pedestrian identified as 28-year-old Parker Palmer. Palmer did not survive his injuries and was pronounced deceased on scene. The vehicle involved in the collision remained on scene.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Preliminary information suggests Palmer was crossing northbound at an uncontrolled intersection when he was struck by a vehicle traveling eastbound on Peoria Avenue. Other details related to the collision remain part of the ongoing investigation. Impairment is not believed to be a factor in the collision.
