Officer Involved Shooting Investigation

(February 23, 2023) Phoenix Police detectives are investigating an officer involved shooting that took place in the area of 100 South 29th Avenue on Wednesday evening.

In the early evening of February 22, 2023, Phoenix officers were called to the neighborhood near 27th Avenue and Adams Street where a caller described a suspicious person possibly related to other police activity in the area. Officers got to the area and learned the man from the call matched the description of a suspect, DPS troopers were looking for, related to a U-Haul failing to stop for officers.

A two-man Phoenix patrol unit began checking the area and saw a man matching the description provided by DPS walking south near 100 South 29th Avenue. When officers tried to contact the man, he immediately pulled out a handgun and pointed it towards officers.

Officers gave the man several commands to drop the gun. He did not. The man continued to point the gun at officers at which time the officer involved shooting occurred. Phoenix Fire Department pronounced the man deceased on scene.

There were no other reported injuries during this incident.

This continues to be an active investigation.
