Officer Involved Shooting Investigation

(June 29, 2023) Phoenix police are investigating an officer involved shooting that occurred near 19th Avenue and Yavapai Street.

Last night on June 28, 2023 just before 9:00 p.m., officers responded to a call of a domestic dispute between a man and a woman near 19th Avenue and Yavapai Street. During the officer's initial investigation, they went to detain the man. The man pulled away and took off running away from officers. The officers chased after the man. After a short distance, the man stopped running and armed himself with a gun. An officer gave police commands for the man to drop the gun. This is when the officer involved shooting occurred. Two officers fired their service weapon. The suspect suffered gunshot wounds and was transported to the hospital where he later died. The suspect was identified as 26-year-old Juan Reynoso.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. During the investigation, the suspect's gun was later determined to be a replica firearm. Details about the initial call for service and the officer involved shooting are still under investigation. There were no injuries to any community members during this incident.
